

Southwest Grain

Release of Information Policy

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you or former customers to non-affiliates or any third party, except as permitted or required by law. If a third party requests information regarding your business with CHS, through Southwest Grain, we will only release it to you in person or via mail to your last known address for you to distribute as you deem necessary.